J. Arthur Clark of Pine came in Monday afternoon, with a load of ore for P. K. Wilcox, from the East Verde. He will load back with goods for Supervisor Fuller's store at Pine. He reports that everyone is jubilant over the prospect of a good season this year.

The Phoenix Gazette says, "a Gila county man who was bitten by a mad dog 14 years ago, died from the effects last Wednesday." We have not been able to locate any person who died in this vicinity, from any such cause. He may have died in some other part of the country.

Mr. Kinnear, an old gentleman living at Pioneer, was thrown out of his wagon, on Monday, near Kelvin, into a pile of rocks, being severely injured. It required over 30 stitches to sew up the cuts in his head. He is doing as well as could be expected for a man of his age.

The Great Hewett and Lady Zetta give two entertainments at the Opera House, Friday and Saturday, March 8 and 9. The Hewetts are great favorites in Globe, having played several engagements in the early days. Since visiting Globe last, they have been in Australia, South Africa and Europe. They have several eastern novelties and will give a first class performance.

Undertaker F. L. Jones has been engaged in cleaning up and fencing the cemetery, and has found many graves without anything to indicate to whom they belong. He would like to have the persons who know any unmarked graves, to give him the locations in order that they may be marked, otherwise changes that are being made, may obliterate all traces of such graves.

A baseball game was played on Sunday afternoon between the Globe nine old players, and the Stars, younger players, in which the "kids" scooped the "professionals" by a very large score, too numerous to mention. There will be another game on Sunday between the same nines for a keg of beer, and it is said that the "kids" have no show in a game for stakes of this kind.

Hon. A. H. Squier, a member of the Pennsylvania legislature, and brother to Z. L. Squier, now in Globe, has acquired the controlling interest in the El Paso and Juarez electric street railway franchises. A party of directors and stockholders in the company is expected to arrive in El Paso next week to perfect plans for the early construction of the system. It will be an enterprise of great advantage to the rapidly expanding city of El Paso.

Perry Howie gave a farewell supper to a few of his gentlemen friends at the Kan Kan restaurant last Monday night. Alabama opossum and turkey were conspicuous in the excellent menu, which included a generous list of wines. Felicitous speeches were made and the genial host was the recipient of many congratulations and well wishes. The guests were: Prof. W. B. Potter, Dr. A. P. Campbell, Geo. P. Andrews, Charles Nesbitt, Henry Nesbitt, Al Kinney, W. T. McNelly and Charles Sherwood.

Samuel Cox, a native of Cornwall, England, aged 47 years, died on Sunday night, of miner's consumption, from which he has been suffering for some time. He worked for a while in the mines here, but for the past two or three months he has not been able to work. He had traveled all over the world, and was very popular wherever he went. He was buried on Tuesday, from the M. E. church, under the auspices of the Miners' Union of which he was a member, his funeral being very largely attended. He was not known to have any relatives in this country, except a brother, who resides somewhere in California.

In a recent dispatch from New York to the San Francisco Examiner the following appears: "Miss Emma Swasey of San Francisco, who has high vocal aspirations, is the protégée of Mme. Nordica, the prima donna, and so enjoys unequalled advantages for study and observation." Miss Swasey is the daughter of former Probate Judge G. A. Swasey of this county, and step-daughter of Captain James Wiley, at whose house she made her home, while she lived here, which was until she was 13 years of age, having developed some musical talent before that time. Her many friends in this community are glad to know of her progress.

Another evidence of the good work accomplished by St. John's church, is the erection of a rectory for their clergyman, Rev. F. S. Eastman. Much credit is due to Mrs. Love for obtaining funds to this end.

The Right Reverend J. M. Kendrick, D. D., Bishop of Arizona and New Mexico, will officiate in St. John's church, Odd Fellows hall, at both services on Sunday. At 7 o'clock p. m., there will be a Baptismal service, and at 7:30 o'clock, he will administer the Apostolic rite of Laying on of Hands or Confirmation.

Editor J. D. Wilson, of the Pima Paragon, made his first visit to Globe this week, and was much pleased and surprised to find Globe to be such a large, good and progressive town. He says that the county seat removal question, is largely engaging the attention of the good people of the Gila valley, since the passage of a new bill by the legislature, touching that matter, and that there is likely to be a spirited contest as to which of the valley towns will get the plumb, although he insists that Pima can get it, if she wants it.

J. H. Morehead and wife took their departure on Tuesday for Douglas, the new town on the southern border, where Mr. Morehead will take charge of the supply department for Robinson & Tooley, the contractors who are building the extension of the A. & S. E. railroad into Mexico, for Phelps, Dodge & Co. The new road has been completed from Don Luis to Douglas, and south of the latter point in Sonora, 20 miles of rails have been laid and 60 miles of grade made. The line in Sonora will be built to the Phelps-Dodge mines at Nacozari and eventually to the gulf of California. A branch to an eastern connection will probably be started within two or three months, and completed this year. Surveys have been made from Douglas to Lordsburg, Separ and El Paso, but the company has given no intimation as to which point will be the eastern terminus, although El Paso is the most likely.
